BANK ENLARGES IN HARLEM.

Corn Exchange Branch Improvements at Lenox Avenue Corner.

A building operation has been started close to the busy corner at Lenox Avenue and 125th Street which, although small, indicates the increasing business and financial activity in the Harlem commercial section. The Corn Exchange Bank, which has maintained its Harlem branch for many years at the northwest corner of Lenox Avenue and 125th Street, purchased the old four-story residence at 311 Lenox Avenue last year. It adjoins the Beverley apartment house on the corner, one of the oldest structures of its kind in Harlem, and which has always been well rented. The bank has leased the northerly half of the ground floor of the apartment, formerly used as a doctor's office, to enlarge its offices which, when alterations are finished, will occupy all of the ground floor of the apartment building, fronting 99.11 feet on the avenue. To provide for additional room for the expansion of its business the adjoining house was bought, and a low building will be erected on the site, the ground floor of which will be connected with the bank offices in the apartment structure. The 311 Lenox Avenue plot has a frontage of 19.11 feet. The house has just been torn down. When the operation is completed the Corn Exchange Harlem Branch will have office frontage on Lenox Avenue of 119.10 feet, at the downtown station entrance to the Lenox Avenue and Seventh Avenue subway.

New Companies Take Title.

The nine-story home of the Seamen Club, sold in foreclosure recently for $153,500, is to be taken over by the 420 West 118th Street Corporation, formed at Albany, with J. A. Martin, C. P. Schrotter, and P. J. Dobson as Directors. The new corporation is capitalized at $10,000.

The Sheldon, Inc., capitalized at $100,000, has been incorporated at Albany to take title to the ten-story apartment hotel at 778 and 780 Madison Avenue, near Sixty-sixth Street, which property was sold recently by the North Madison Avenue Company to Philadelphia interests. The hotel is to be named the Sheldon. A. J. Peck, J. M. Fagan, and H. Boechel are Directors in the corporation.

Ash Removal.

The Real Estate Board of New York, the Merchants Association, and other prominent civic bodies will come together in the near future to find ways and means to settle the vexatious problem of ash removal from apartment houses, hotels, and office buildings.

Long Term Building Loans

WE are now prepared to consider loans in the form of first mortgage bond issues, either for construction purposes or on newly finished properties, such as office, apartment, commercial, or loft buildings.

Amounts range from a minimum of $250,000 upward.

These loans will be made only in accordance with the provisions of the Straus Plan, requiring the borrower to amortize or reduce the loan each year, by paying off a certain number of the bonds. Ample equities and margins of earnings required.

A LAKE OF YOUR OWN

In the Beautiful Adirondack Mountains
For the Spring and Summer Season or Shorter Period

A lake of your own for the whole spring and summer season—or for only a short period if you prefer—with the exclusive right to fish in it and use it; and a comfortable camp—the only one on the lake—to live in; and the privilege of wandering over thousands of acres of forest lands—lands and waters which have hitherto been absolutely private; with the Adirondacks all about you; with glorious sport, glorious walks and glorious mountain top views close at hand. If these joys of the woods appeal to you drop a postal card or a note in the letter box, addressing it to the

Plain Honest Talk

I wish to meet quickly a few plot buyers that can be confidentially allowed unusual purchase conditions in order to start quick activity in a new high-grade development.

Only a few, and quick action is necessary—activity is the secret of a boom—I'll pay for it.

The community is established, every improvement, within easy reach of the city. Plots are large and restricted. Just the place for the most discriminating.

Plain, 104 Times.
